“ I am sorry for your loss of a wonderful lady. She was always so kind and caring. I remember going to the convention and every night she asked if we had enough milk. Loved her and will miss her. Lorri Lovejoy Salmon

“ Dear ones, I'm so sorry for the passing of Ava! I've been ill and don't go to crowded places much at all. For 2 years I have been on antibiotics due to unending infections, and having falls, but I am finally improving. I did intend to come to your Mom's memorial service. I was definitely there with you all, in spirit, and will be thinking of each of you in the coming days. You are missed by me, often. I only run into one of you rarely. It would be lovely if perhaps in the near future we may be able to meet and reminisce. Debbie, I have especially missed you. Please contact me when you have some time. Much love, thoughts, and prayers,

“ She was everyone's Mom when we was growing up, it never seemed to matter who showed up, she was always hospitable & treaded us like we was her kid too! Always smiled, always interested in you, selfless, kind, & always made you want to come back. She always had time to visit, even when busy, & never knew a stranger. You couldn't find a better neighbor or friend. She will be missed...
