“ Aunt Jeannie was always the fun Aunt!! She taught me how to be bougie before it was even a thing! So I'm going to take this space to share some gems! Never be without paper and pen. It is ok to buy snacks that are ONLY YOURS (never touch her creamhorns)!! A lady should have a purse large enough to be mysterious.. and that purse enabled you to always be prepared for any situation! ORGANIZATION!! Everything has a container! Saving seemingly innocuous things that will later mean the world to you or someone you care about. Headless mannequins are scary (if you know you know). A good robe is essential to self care. If you like it buy multiples! How to throw the beat slumber parties! I know I could say so much more but I'm going to be selfish with the rest of my memories and simply say; she was one of the best and she will be extremely missed.

“ Aunt Jeannie was the queen of Bridal magazine. I used to love looking through those and going through her purse because she would always have several little bags within the purse. She would have little notepads and ink pens, anything you needed she had it in her big ole purse! I loved to hear her laugh too she would turn just as red lol it was so funny. She was always the caretaker, making sure whoever was sick was taken care of. I will miss her dearly. Fly high auntie!
