“ My sweet Cinderella, I miss you more and more each day. I miss the wonderful times we had together, how we laughed and talked all night. I am so thankful you choose me to share your short time on earth with. I finally got Julianne's Cottage. Your dad and Sally gave it to me for Christmas 2022. Everytime I look at it I reminded you called my house Julianna's Cottage and promised you would get me the picture by Thomas Kinkaid. I love you and I carry you in my heart for ever.

“ The last words Brenna said to me the day she took her flight to heaven was;
"If I get to heaven before you I tell Jason how much you love and miss him." Well she has made it before me and no doubt she told Jason what she promised.

I have tried to recall when I meet Brenna the first time, but I can't remember. It's as though there was never a time she wasn't in my life. My life is better because she lived with me...I will always love her and thank God for putting her in my life.

“ I have been blessed in many ways when this precious sweet person stepped into my life. Brenna turned my life into our own fairy tale. Fortunately, I wasn't her wicked stepmother but she is my Cinderella. We formed a loving relationship that only got better over the years. I don't have the words or time to express how she changed my life and has made me a better person, except to say "She makes my heart smile." She left me many treasured memories, each one running over with love, joy,happiness, along with a lot of tears, sadness and fear of not knowing what tomorrow would bring. I would not remove or change one second of the years we had together. This fairy tales has a happy ending. Brenna is in heaven preparing for "the ball". She doesn't have to be concerned about clock stricking midnight or losing her glass slipper. She will always be Cinderella and live in a palace created just for her. The love and appreciation we between us is mutual. I am truly so thankful for Breena and the difference she made in my life. The memories she gave me will sustain me til I get to the ball and see her again.
