“ My most fondest memories of my brother Chuck was when we were growing up on 3rd Ave west. Chuck loved to tinker and take bike parts and design his own unique bike. He was very creative in his designs. The one remember the most was a chopper bike. I think he was trying to design a Easy Rider bike 🏍️. He also made ramps to do bike stunts. It's a miracle he didn't break any bones performing these stunts! We spent our summers at Lions Club and Stella Fuller playgrounds. We also spent a lot of time on the flood wall. We would do barrel rolls and slide down on cardboard in the summer and sled down in the winter. So much fun!!

Chuck was very handsome and remember girls would chase after him, pin him down to kiss him. 🏍️.

He always had a big smile and peace sign 🤝🙌

He loved music and liked it loud! He put headphones on and turn the music as loud as he could get it. I could hear the music outside his bedroom door! And he loved to rock back and forth. With or with out a rocking chair.

These are my fondest memories of my brother Chuck. He was loved and will be missed ❤️

Rest in Peace brother 🙏🕊️
