“ I've Just Seen The Rock Of Ages Oh, I was standing by the bedside Where my fevered father lay When he called me close beside him And I thought I heard him say I've just seen the rock of ages Jacob's ladder hanging down I've just crossed the river of Jordan Now, my son, I'm homeward bound Oh, as we gathered by his bedside Tears begin to fill our eyes Then he called me close beside him And whispered softly his good-byes Pine trees blowing cross the mountain Where forever he will lay There he'll rest beside the fountain There he'll sleep beneath the clay -- Ralph Stanley & The Clinch Mountain Boys (edited)

“ I was a classmate of Doug's at Blaine High School, class of 1964. Although we were not that close, I always had a lot of respect for him. He, along with Louise, and me listed as Walter, were in a photo as being the 'most studious' in the Who's Who section of the annual, The Excelsior. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family at this difficult time especially close to Fathers' Day. Walter (Doug) Spillman, Flatwoods, KY raised at Webbville, KY.
