“ I cannot begin to tell you how Jenny was always there, over the fifty years I was a part of the family for me. She and Charlie stood up for me and John when we got married. We raised our kids together and survived all that. We both lost our husbands and she helped me thru it. That's the way she was. She would do anything for anyone. I am greatly going to miss her. I know she is in a better place and rejoicing with the ones we lost this year. Enjoy those wings, Jenny. I love you, We never got to go back to Montana again, but we sure had fun.
