“ To all of Gladys family, I am so sorry to have learned of her passing. I am her cousin on her Dad.s side and we shared many a good times at my parents home in Sturgeon as we were growing up. She was always a beautiful person, inside and out. I am glad she and I were able to keep in touch throughout the years. Time passes quickly but memories last forever. She was like another daughter to my parents and my mom's namesake (Gladys Winters Balmer). You have all been blessed with a wonderful legacy to pass on to your own children and grandchildren. Keep your mom and dad's beauty alive. They were very special, beautiful people and are together again. May peace be with you. Dixie-Lee Balmer HABERLAND
