“ I remember as kids, Jeremy and I jumped into the tiny pond behind our grandparents' house, churning up all the water. The next day, all the catfish that they'd put in it had died. Neither his, nor my, parents were thrilled

“ My heart goes out to Uncle Donnie and Aunt Sherrill and Jerod. Words simply fail. Jeremy was such a central part of whenever the family came up for Christmas (or any other time) as we were growing up.

“ *Jeremy was always such a super nice smiling guy All The Time
Almost 31 years ago in October Jeremy came to the house & let my husband know someone on his motorcycle had wrecked
It was my brother that lived a few days in a coma & then had died
Jeremy was always looking out for others
I will miss going by his house blowing the horn & waiving 🇺🇸*
