“ Joel Dee, You're going to have the best Christmas this year with Mama and Papa. I'm so happy for you and a little jealous at the same time. Im glad we were able to come visit you last year and that Cruz got to meet you. I'll miss you forever. Love you. P.S. Sorry for crashing your van into the creek when I was little.

“ Joel Dee...what can I say except I hope you know how much much I loved you. Your childlike personality was infectious you could never be serious about anything except your family and I know how much love you had for all of us especially your Mom and Dad. I will miss your phone calls and you informing me about all the new movies that came out.If there was a game called movie trivia I know you would be the winner, and you never failed to tell me ' I sure miss Mom and Dad and I would say me too Joel Dee then we both would just get quiet and change the subject. I hope you get to spend Christmas with them in heaven. Your Aunt Janet

“ It was always wonderful to see Joel out and about with my childhood friend and next door neighbor Lori Riddle. We all especially enjoyed seeing them at the Chesapeake driving range each fall during homecoming alumni weekend. Joel's friendliness and smile made everyone feel welcome. I know that my dear friend Lori will Forever miss her dear friend Joel. Shelley Brown
