“ I just found out about Marion. She was my aunt by marriage and I used to spend a lot of time playing with little Sherry, even though she was younger than me. As I child I was always so fascinated with Marion because she was always soft spoken and gentle spirited, and I believed her to be the second most beautiful woman in the world, my own mother holding the position of first. I know her family and friends must be devastated by the emptiness from absence of her loving presence. My prayers and thoughts are with you all, but especially dear Sherry.
