“ Kendall was the youngest of the Pleasant family. Kendall was always happy was extremely talented. He was an extension the musical, sports, and historical family. I always remember seeing a smile and offering assistance to those working in the community. He was often seen with his side kick poochie, Kendall and his infectious personality will always be remembered. Kendall will join the 37 pioneers who settled the Burlington community. He will be surely missed and may God continue blessing him and the family.
