“ I can share alot of memories I have of this man and they all bring a smile to my face. He always took me to church as I was growing up. The stops by on the way home to the freezette getting ice cream. All the family trips to the smokey's camping. I can say he was a good Christian man and my favorite uncle. Please keep my aunt Thelma and family in your prayers as they go for closure on august 21st. Give Thelma the strength Lord to make it thru these days without him, we all know it was god calling him to come on home.
