“ Oh pawpaw, how I miss you so much. I love you still and think about you every day. I still remember how we used to watch movies together, go out to dinner, play games. It hurts me to think about you sometimes. I still can't wrap my head around the fact that you are gone forever. I love you and miss you so much. I just want you back 😞

“ My friend, so many fun memories of us growing up! I will miss your tidbits you posted on FB Woody and I would say, "Where the hell did you learn to write like that!" We all had fun together and one day we will all be together to wreak havoc on The Golden Roads! RIP my friend...

“ He was a good friend and we often shared thoughts with each other about our passed in Chesapeake. I remember stopping at his dads shop at the foot of Eaton road buying an ice cream cone or something to eat. He was so active in sports at CHS. He loved fishing and hunting and the outdoors...he will be missed. I know this passed few years was hard on him with the deaths in his own family and I can only imagine what he was going through.

“ Todd called me Friday Eve just to see how I was doing. We reminisced about 'dad,mom,and Lori.' We talked a few min then he said for me to be careful with my leg and not to mess around in this snow and hurt it . So genuine. RIP my brother - in- law and give everyone hugs. I will never forget all our good times... especially the fishing trips.

“ Todd was like a brother to me. He came to my house and offered me a job when I needed it most. We stayed in contact throughout the years. I caught up when him here in Florida recently. I still can't believe this. He was always bigger than life. A guy you always wanted on your side. He always had my back. Rest In Peace brother.
