“Wow! Hated to hear this honestly. I've known you since you were just a baby. At my Uncle Keith's house. I thought so much of you I actually named my baby doll after you!! Rest easy brother!!

“This one hurts really bad. My name is Jeremy Riley and I met Ricky (Lunchbox) maybe 4 years ago and I will say that he was such a good person,he would do anything to help you no matter what it was.The thing that hurts me so bad is that I ran into Lunchbox on Friday on my way home. I ask how he was. Told me he was good that he final got his places and everything was making a turn for the good.and after we talked a few minutes I told him to call his mother and his kids and let them know how he was doing. He said he was going to call them. But he made sure that he loved them very much and how he missed them but said he knows he is in there hearts. Then on Monday I see that God needed him more than we do and it made me really upset knowing that was my last conversation with him. Lunchbox was a great young man that never gave up and was full of life even with everything thrown at him. He would always put a smile on your face and loved his games and books always reading. Lunchbox will be greatly missed. Until we meet again my friend. 1-love. Jay
