“ I have known this man for many years and have never seen him without a smile on his face. I will miss seeing him out in the neighborhood when I am riding my granddaughter on the scooter. I will miss those conversations, my heartfelt condolences to his family. I can't even imagine how they are getting through this. It still doesn't seem real. RIP my dear friend. I will miss you.

“ My family is devastated. We loved Sharrod like a brother and my parents considered him another son. He took numerous vacations with us and spent much time in our homes as we did his. He was one of the most gentle, honest, loving human beings we have ever known. His smile was ever present and always sincere. We will miss and mourn you dear friend.
