“ Shawn and I grew up next door to each other for years, and then someone bought the field that separated us and built a house (Mr. Daniels), so the path we had created from our front doors slowly faded, as do all things. I haven't seen or spoken with Shawn since HS, but I did stop by and visit his mother the last time I was in SP. My condolences to Jeanie, Jackie, Libby, and all other family members.

“ My buddy Shawn and I had great fun over the years at SPHS. Sadly, after graduation we lost track of each other. His family welcomed me with open arms. I'm so sorry for your loss. Prayers for the family. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ I shared a home with Shawn for a couple of years, and they were some of the happiest times of my life. He was truly one of the best people I have ever known. His friendship was always a blessing and a comfort, and I will treasure his memory as long as I live. All my love and sympathy to you during this heart-breaking time. -Libby Stephenson Rayment
