“ Buddy this is just not real, you will be missed by many people in the Pedro area especially by my grandson Carter you made his summer with that old Volkswagen he could hear you coming down the road and ran to the door just to watch you carry on going up the holler, you sure could take someone sad and make them happy, I will forever miss you Skylar and that big smile you always had, you were taken way to soon but they always say God takes the good ones first R.I.H. Skylar 💙💙

“ In life, one becomes so wrapped up in daily events, that time passes. You lose contact, you get busy, before you know it a decade or more has passed. You miss out on so much of each other's lives. Then you hear the tragic news and hope that it's just a fevered dream and you just want desperately to wake up. Reality sets in. The tragic loss, leaves you broken with a tear stained face and just wanting desperately to have one moment back.

One moment just to hear his laugh, see his smile or just give him a hug. Skylar was one of a kind, I miss him more than one could describe. My most fondest memories are of when he was just a little boy. To me he will always be just that little kid that was so attached he would cry if I left the room. He was Thomas' boy and that made him even more special to me.

Losing a loved one is never easy, and when that loss comes as a result of extreme unwarranted tragedy, the pain can be even more unbearable. I offer my sincerest condolences to everyone who knew and loved him. Everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him has suffered a loss that is unbearable. The loss of someone you love is a difficult journey, and it is important to take the time to grieve and to remember the good times that were shared. It is also important to lean on the support of family and friends during this difficult time. While nothing can take away the pain of losing him, I hope that people can find some comfort in the memories shared together. Please know that you are in my thoughts Peanut as for the loss you suffered is greater.

“ Skylar was my birthday twin.. He would always make sure to tell me HAPPY BIRTHDAY TWIN... He will forever be missed. My bday won't be the same after this. When he got put of prison this last time he messaged me about getting him a bed at the rehab I worked at. And the little turd had me send someone out to pick him up then he called me and said sis I'm to scared to go. I often checked in on him to make sure he was OK. Dang it an this is such a horrible situation..
REST IN PARADISE MY SWEET FRIEND.

“ Sky where to began! You meant so much to me! All those chats we had! The way you always would say Mama Lou I need you! We had alot of late night chats about life. You always say Mama Lou you always tell me like it is! My heart is so broken! Whatever will I do without you. Your life was taken tragically way to soon! Till we meant again someday know that Mama Lou will always love you!! My heart is in shambles without you!! Hope you've found peace in Heaven that this world wouldn't let you have!!!Rest in peace Son!!

“ My best friend! Skylar I will miss you for the rest of my life. I already miss our talks and driving each other nuts lol. You were always there for me as I was for you. When we felt we had no one we had each other. You were so funny and crazy just like me. I've never clicked with any friend the way I have with you. It took us no time to become best friends. I love you always! You were such a good person and everyone loves you.
