“ On behalf of the staff and residents (both former and current) of Cammack Children's Center, our thoughts and prayers are going out to your family. Terry was very dedicated to our agency and to our children. She was definitely 'one in a million.' We have many happy memories of smiles and laughter. Terry was a wonderful, caring person and a good friend that touched many lives. Our love to all of you--- Hazel Jacob & all of Terry's former co-workers at Cammack

“ When my life fell apart, my best friend Jamie and her sister Terry along with George, they kept my sanity. They filled me with laughter and with love and for that, I will be always grateful. I never got to say that to Terry. I hope she knew how great of a friend she was. With all my love and prayers to the family.
