“ My wife and I knew Wanda as Sister Harris. She was the wife of our Pastor Wayne Harris 1984 thru 1991 in Cincinnati Ohio. She truly was a wonderful inspiring woman. She was a elegant lady that everyone loved. My wife and I set down to eat many a meal with both of the Harris's and we enjoyed Sister Harris speaking of her childhood memories. She became a close friend, She truly felt like a sister, She loved her family so. I have a letter she sent to us when they first moved to Ashland where she mentions Maeggin and a little dog that wonders into the school everyday and how she enjoys that. and that Shelley goes to Renfro school and loves it. She was a real inspiration to my wife and I. To hear of her passing is heartbreaking. But we know that we shall see her again and once again perhaps speak of the good times we shared. We shall share the joys of Heaven. We Pray that the Lord Comfort her family and Friends knowing we shall meet again. Jim and Jenny Cammack
